

How to Make Employee Satisfaction and Engagement Survey with Sorwe

Sorwe, with its smart technology, offers a brand new employee satisfaction and engagement analysis that detects problematic areas and produces pinpoint and deep results with instant feedback from employees at the most appropriate time.

Create an Employee Satisfaction and Engagement Survey in your company with ready-to-use question sets in 18 dimensions prepared by HR experts, or shape the survey specifically for your company with your own questions.

Let Sorwe follow the process for you with personalized instant notifications, e-mail and SMS reminders that it sends at the right time. Employees can quickly and securely participate in the process, 100% online, from their phones, computers or kiosks.

Follow the real-time results and analysis from the management panel. See the results of action plans throughout the year and generate online reports in any breakdown and analysis you wish.
